BUBBLE SOCCER WAIVER

Before participating in a Bubble Soccer event facilitated by ANU Sport, all participants must read the information in this document including the code of conduct, and then sign the declaration and disclaimer below.

ANU Sport Bubble Soccer Code of conduct

It is the responsibility of all players to conduct themselves in a way that is respectful and considerate to team members, opposing teams, the convenor, the referee and any other people concerned. Any behaviour, act or language that is considered inappropriate by the officials (referee or the convenor) will not be tolerated. Poor conduct either on or off the court will be determined by the officials and action will be taken based upon this conduct. This can include the removal of a player, or team, from the competition, should they be deemed dangerous or offensive to players or officials.

You are not allowed to participate if you

- Are under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- Are pregnant
- Have a medical condition that may predispose you to an unnecessary risk of injury
- Are wearing studded shoes, which are NOT permitted in this activity.

Declaration and Disclaimer

1. The participant is either over the age of 13 or at least 155cm in height.
2. The participant understands that by participating in this Bubble Soccer activity, they may suffer injury, loss or damage and the participant does so at their own risk.
3. The participant accepts that ANU Sport or the venue owner or manager will not be liable for any injury, loss, damage, action, claim, costs or expenses, which may arise as a consequence of or participation in the ANU Sport Bubble Soccer activity.
4. The participant shall not make any claim or demand against ANU Sport, Bubble Soccer or the venue management for any reason whatsoever including, but not limited to, any claim or demand arising as a result of any action, default, omission or negligence of ANU Sport, Bubble Soccer or the venue owner or manager.
5. The participant will at all times behave in a manner that is in accordance with the code of conduct of ANU Sport Bubble Soccer, and hereby confirms that they have read the ANU Sport Bubble Soccer Code of Conduct.
6. The participant will grant permission for ANU Sport to use photographs and recordings of the participant in the activity.
