

Student Sport Officer (SSO) - Club Development

Job Description

Location: Acton, Canberra

Reports to: ANU Sport, Sport Coordinator

Hours: Casual, up to 15 hours per week OR as agreed pending events / program

ANU Sport is an independent incorporated association that delivers sport, fitness and recreation services and opportunities to the ANU Community. Our goal at ANU Sport is to enhance and grow the opportunities for the ANU community to engage in sport, fitness, and recreation, promoting well-being and balanced lifestyles.

About the role

Each year, ANU Sport is committed to providing employment opportunities to students to gain experience both working in an office environment, and exposure to sport and recreation administration and management.

The Student Sport Officer (SSO) – Club Development roles are an exciting opportunity for ANU students to be involved in a variety of programs within ANU Sport. The SSO will be responsible for developing, implementing and supporting programs that will enhance the student experience in sport, recreation and well-being activities and events at ANU.

The role will be engaged on a weekly basis and may be offered the opportunity for additional work during the study breaks pending projects, programs, and availability. Positions may be required to work on weekends or be offered the opportunity to travel to events that ANU Sport is participating in. The tenure for the position will conclude on 30th November each year.

Club Development Assistant
