

ANU INTERHALL SPORT RULES

ROAD RELAY

EVENT FORMAT

Road Relay is a mixed gendered team road race event.

TEAM SIZE & ELIGIBILITY

A road relay team shall consist of 4 men* and 4 women*, with no more than 2 people of each gender running the 1.5km course or the 3km course.

Per ANU interhall sport rules, each residence is permitted place 1 ex-resident* in the Road Relay Team. Note that this ex-resident must still be a student at the ANU.

RACE

The order for road relay is as follows: 1500m, 3000m, 1500m, 3000m, 1500m, 3000m, 1500m, 3000m.

Any shortcutting, interfering with other runners or other forms of foul play will lead to disqualification from the event. Another person must not accompany a runner on foot or any other means of transport. It is the responsibility of each residence to ensure that spectators are also aware of this. The winning team is that who, obeying the rules, finishes the race first with a shorter time than all opposing teams.

FORFEITS

If a residence does not have a team, they will receive a DNS. If a runner becomes unable to complete the race, the residence results in a DNF.

GAME OFFICIALS

ANU Sport will provide Duty Officials and Staff members to officiate the event. Each residence will be required to provide a handful of volunteers to assist in the delivery of the event.

UNIFORM AND EQUIPMENT

Competitors should wear the colours and uniform of their residence.

ANU INTERHALL SPORT POLICIES

All ANU Interhall Sport policies and procedures must be adhered to by all participants. Sports Representatives from each residence are expected to ensure that participants are aware of all of the relevant policies and procedures and act accordingly. For more information, consult the ANU Sport website.

Ex residents are required to apply for permission to play for their college before the fixture. This can be done by emailing Olly Ellis with permission from their head of hall and proof of enrollment. Once an ex-resident has completed this process they are eligible to play in any fixture*
